

YOUNG ADULT SEMINARS

WEDNESDAY, JULY 1 | 9:45 A.M. - 10:45 A.M.

REIMAGINING VOCATION

Nathan Penner
2101

What if our vocation has less to do with what we choose to do, and more to do with who we belong to? Come to this interactive seminar that invites young adults to consider how your gifts, talents, and passions can be used to be a part of God's larger story at work in this world.

READING YOUNG ADULTS

Katie Hochstedler and Sarah Klaassen
2215B

Young adults are inheriting a world that is more fragile, connected, and diverse than anytime in the past. What they are seeking and expecting from a church is often different than was true for past generations. This is an opportunity to hear young adults reflect upon what matters to them, particularly in areas related to social justice, sexuality, spiritual practice, worship and community.

THURSDAY, JULY 2 | 9:00 A.M. – 10:00 A.M.

FOLLOWING YOUR PASSION

Eric Kratz
2501A

Come hear the story of Erik Kratz and leave inspired to follow God's call in your life.

THURSDAY, JULY 2 | 2:00 P.M. - 3:00 P.M.

BUDGET? LOANS? HELP! THE 411 FOR YOUNG ADULTS ON MANAGING FINANCES

Beryl Jantzi
2505B

By and large, college does a good job at preparing young adults to enter their professions with appropriate skills. However, most young adults entering the work place have few financial tools necessary to navigate real life. Don't miss this informative seminar that will help you get started right!

SATURDAY, JULY 4 | 2:00 P.M. - 3:00 P.M.

FINDING OUR WAY: BODY POLITICS AND SEXUALITY

Deanna Durham

2204

Sexuality is a very basic dimension of our personhood. Advertising, media, pornography, violent video games all co-modify sexuality into something very narrow. For many young adults there is an immense need for more meaningful and positive representations of sexuality. Understanding our sexuality as a longing and need for intimate communion and love that includes much more than genital relating is needed.
