

Frequently Asked Questions regarding the Future Church Summit

Name submissions for the Future Church Summit are due by Friday, April 14. Names can be submitted by two methods (please only submit each name once):

1. Via a church organization, agency, or partnering group. Letters have been sent to these groups.
2. Individuals may request participation via the online interest form.

How will final participants be chosen?

1. The total number of additional participants will be based on the total number of delegates registered by April 30. Our goal is to maintain a ratio of 70% delegates to 30% non-delegate participants.
2. The Executive Board staff will compile the list of names and pass on to the Process Design Team for final determinations.
  - a. Priority will be given to names submitted via church organization, agency, or partnering group.
  - b. Individuals who self-identify will be used to fill in the "gaps."
3. We will notify participants by May 1st if they are selected.

Should I register for convention?

1. Yes, you have to be registered for convention by May 12th to participate in the Future Church Summit.
2. Full Convention Registration. The early bird registration rate of $299 has been extended until Thursday, March 23 for those enjoying the full-convention experience, July 4-8.
3. Delegate Assembly/Future Summit Only Registration. For those wishing only to attend our business sessions on July 6-8, a reduced registration rate of $200 is available throughout the entire registration period.

Can I sign-up for the Future Church Summit On-site?

1. No, there will be assigned tables for the Future Church Summit. These tables will be assigned prior to the start of the convention.
2. There will be limited seating in the Delegate/Future Church Summit hall and there will only be enough polling equipment and material to accommodate those who sign up in advance.

I was only coming to participate in the Future Summit, but I was not selected. Can I get a refund?

1. Yes, as long as you registered prior to March 23,
2. And your name was actually submitted as a potential participant for the Future Church Summit.